THE OLD ORGAN.

I've seen a stack of instruments for makin' music grand—
I've listened to Koebelliek and to Mr. Suser's Band.
I've heard some swell pianists thump them keys in fancy style—
I swear they seemed to have that Paderwhiskey beat a mile?
I allers liked good music, and I never miss a chance
To hear the best there is—it sorter puts me in a trance;
But somehow aithin' can compare—leastwise it seems that way,
With the music of the organ that my mother uster play.
'Twas jest a little organ, kinder old and out o' tune,
But when the stars was winkin' at the flirtn', grinnin' moon,
And all the birds was sleepin' in their nests up i' the trees,
And the crickets was a-chirpin' jest as sassy as you please,
'Tis kids quit playin' hide an' seek, and mother she sat down
And sang fer us about the mold'ring body o' John Brown,
And Bonnie Annie Laurie, and that Yankee Doodle song,
And we all joined in the chorus, jest to help the organ 'long.
On Sundays mother never played no funny songs at all,
Jest gospel hymns, 'bout how the Lord don't let no sparrers fall,
And 'bout the waves o' Jordan, how they roll and roll;
The one that she liked best was "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."
We uster sit adlisten, and the organ seemed to know
Jest how to act on Sunday, fer its tones was soft and low;
And it allers looked so lonesome when she closed it up and said:
"Come, children, run along upstairs—it's time to go to bed."

D. HECHINGER & CO TO OUR PATRONS!

AND THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL.

The indications strongly point to the best Holiday trade we have enjoyed for many years. The inducements we are holding out in prices, considering the class of goods we carry, must appeal to the intelligent people. Did they not, the public would not flock to our store as they do.

WE NEED NOT AGAIN ENUMERATE THE ELEGANT, SENSIBLE AND USEFUL LINES OF MERCHANDISE SUITABLE FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

Our window displays tell that story better than we can tell it in the newspapers.

We ask our friends, and particularly those near home, not to defer their shopping in our line until the last day or two before the holidays. It is always best to avoid the rush incident to the last two or three days before Christmas.

In the last twenty-four hours we received a new supply of choice Mufflers and Gloves. We call particular attention to them on account of their elegance. WE GIVE GLOBE TRADING STAMPS.

THE HOME STORE. D. HECHINGER & CO.

Hermann Lange, the former Maysville Jeweler, has one of the most complete establishments in Cincinnati, located at 425 Vine street, corner Arcade. Mr. Lange's elegant line of jewelry—watches, diamonds and silverware—is among the best selected in the Queen City, and shoppers from this section are invited to call and see his goods. He has everything in the jeweler's line, and what you can't get at Lange's is not in the catalogue.

MYSTERIOUS CUTTING

Stanley Porter Stabbed By Unknown Late Saturday Night

A cutting took place in Mitchell & Burgoyne's saloon in Market street Saturday night about 11 o'clock that is very mysterious, to say the least of it, when at the time the deed was done fifteen or more men were in the room and not a soul of them, so they say, knows who the guilty party is.

Mr. Stanley Porter's version is: "I was standing at the bar; my overcoat was thrown loose over my shoulders; it fell to the floor and while I was in a stooping position and about to pick the garment up, I was cut. I had no words with any one, that I remember; was perfectly sober, but I don't know who cut me."

The wound is about three inches long, the knife entering four inches below the left shoulder blade.

The wounded man was taken to the office of Dr. Taulbee, who dressed and sewed it up.

While it is a deep and bad cut, the Doctor pronounced it not dangerous.

The idea of any one trying to shield a person who is capable of stabbing a one-armed man in the back—for virtually that is the condition of Stan Porter today, having had his arm broken at the wrist and not having fully recovered the use of it yet—is something not readily understood by a brave and courageous man.

The individual who did the cutting is evidently a coward and an assassin at heart.

The big Chief will turn the right party up at the right time; wait and see if he doesn't.

The Lone Star State.

Down in Texas at Yokum is a big drygoods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller, on one of his trips East to buy goods, said to a friend who was with him in the palace car, "Here, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning feeling good." For the "dark brown" taste, headache and that lousy feeling DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills to use. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

STOLE BARREL OF SUGAR

Several Toughs Will Take a Trip to Frankfort For It

Friday night of last week a C. and O. freight car standing on the switch near the old Wormald coal elevators corner Front and Limestone streets, was broken open and a barrel of granulated sugar consigned to M. C. Russell Co. was stolen. The half empty barrel was found Saturday in the rear of the elevators.

Chief Donovan put his men on the hunt for the culprits and now has behind the bars, charged with the theft as well as the more serious one of breaking into a sealed car, Richard Watkins, Robert Clayton, Dan Sullivan and Nelson Rogers, with more to follow.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Maysville Girl Jumped From Burning College Building in South

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, colored, of Fifth street received a dispatch Saturday from Nashville, Tenn., informing them that their daughter Mamie was one of the victims of the terrible holocaust that befel Rust Hall, a dormitory of Walden University, a colored institution at that place.

Miss Harris was one of the sixty girl students occupying quarters in the building and who were compelled to jump from the windows in an attempt to save their lives.

Seven were killed outright and twenty-four seriously injured.

Miss Harris had her leg broken and received internal injuries.

Mrs. Florence Harris, the girl's mother, left on the noon train Saturday to be at the bedside of her injured daughter.

Mamie Harris is a graduate of the Maysville High School and is this her second year at the Walden University.

Later advices say that Maggie Sroufe of Dover is among the missing.

Miss Nora Clinger is suffering with two felons on one hand.

Dolls, Toys and Fancy China at The Racket, 40 W. Second. L. H. YOUNG & Co.

WATKINS—HUTCHISON.

At Covington Friday occurred the marriage of Mr. Claude G. Watkins and Miss Ethel Hutchison, both of this city, the Rev. J. I. Blackburn officiating.

Miss Hutchison is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hutchison of the Sixth Ward. She had been on a visit in Cincinnati for several days.

Mr. Watkins is one of Maysville's well known and popular young man.
The many friends of the young couple extend best wishes for a happy wedded life.

SILVEY—DEAN.

Mr. William M. Silvey of Springdale, and Mrs. Sarah Dean of Mason county, second marriage of both, were married yesterday at the home of W. H. Leming.

GILL—ROSS.

Mr. Fred J. Gill and Miss Minnie A. Ross, both of Mason county, will be married at the home of the bride tomorrow on Bull Creek.

The New Kentucky Home Cook Book would make a nice Christmas gift.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BENEFIT FOR A GOOD CAUSE.

It will be held in Neptune Hall for the benefit of the poor to buy coal Tuesday and Wednesday, December 22d and 23d, opening with a matinee Tuesday at 3 p. m. for the children. Colonel Woodford has the best moving picture exhibition on the road, carrying 2,000 different pictures and using 3 machines. Miss Cecile Lynette, who sang in the Christain Church Sunday, will appear in her illustrated songs.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Dr. Armstrong of Delta, Tex., prescribes it daily and says there is no better cough remedy made. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

"THERE was only a moderate demand for money Friday," says the monetary report; which was no doubt due to the fact that The Ledger's payday is Saturday.

THE present freezeup in the Ohio has brought "the oldest inhabitant" out of his hole, and one back number snoozer says this is the most remarkable December since 1832. Certainly it is the most remarkable December of the twentieth century.

CORN has been bred to show that by intelligent cultivation the parts of the kernel that yield the oil can be minimized, while those that produce protein can be developed. That, at last, accounts for the difference in Maysville and Cincinnati whisky.

THAT was a verdant thief who picked a Democratic Editor's pocket at Governor BECKHAM's inauguration. He might have known it contained only a free pass over the railroad, a list of delinquent subscribers and sixteen duns from his grocer.

THE local weather oracle at Cincinnati is right for once. He says "the weather will moderate and the ice in the river will give way." That's a cinch; and if he had just assured us that the skating would be very poor on the Fourth of July, how happy we'd be.

AFTER supplying the country with Fourth Assistant Postmaster General BRISTOW, Kansas can be depended upon to furnish any sort of novelty. The latest is an escaped prisoner who robbed the Sheriff who went to arrest him and again skipped out.

SENATOR HANNA has had 10,000 circular letters printed to inform his friends that he is not in any sense a "candidate" for the Presidential nomination; but he doesn't say he wouldn't accept the honor if it was tendered him. The fact that he has been obliged to adopt this method of replying to letters urging his candidacy is of itself pretty good evidence of his strength with the people.

The first meeting of the new Tribe will be held Wednesday, December 30th.

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear If the Advice of This Maysville Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Many Maysville women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. John E. Buras of the West End, near Re. no. 5, says:

"I am greatly pleased with the benefit I received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. Use proved them to be the best kidney remedy that I know of. I have heard a number of persons speak of the great relief obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

A STATISTICIAN says the food bill of rats in the six leading countries of the globe is estimated at $60,000,000 annually. Rats!

CHICAGO is now enjoying her daily labor strike. This time the 1,600 livery drivers of the city have gone out, and the Chicagoese who ride in beveled glass fronted hacks now walk.

AND now it appears that Governor BRADLEY's call on the President related chiefly to a pardon for ex-Banker J. M. KNIGHT of Louisville, now serving a six years sentence on the charge of violating the National Banking Laws. However, if the President consulted Mr. BRADLEY about Kentucky politics, he was talking to the man who could tell him many things that he didn't know, and which would have been very valuable to him in the outset of his Administration.

THE anti-Roosevelt movement grows apace and gathers strength as the days come. Thoughtful people are beginning to distrust his prudence, his self-restraint and his conservatism. This is well stated in an editorial in The New York Times, which says in part—

"It is open to anybody who will listen to the speech of the people to know that great numbers of Republicans now look with deep misgiving upon the popularity of Mr. ROOSEVELT's candidacy which they fear would involve party defeat. It may be a temporary and curable condition, but unquestionably something has weakened Mr. ROOSEVELT's hold upon the Republican party and upon the people."

"The testimony as to the nature of this 'something' runs all in one direction. There is want of confidence in the President's steadiness and sobriety of judgment. Conservative men are afraid of him, and they openly say so. They never know what he is going to do. They do not like his constant exhibitions of the fighting temper. He is habitually spoken of as a terrible fighting man. They do not want to fight, they want peace. This is a land of peace. The fighting temperament they feel is a dangerous one, particularly when the disposition to fight resides in a man in whom is vested the power to do vast harm. The course he has pursued on the isthmus of Panama enjoys a surface popularity. But it was so irregular, high-handed, and so fraught with risk and possibilities of embroilment that sober-minded men, though they may be avowed partisans of an Isthmian canal, view the incident with apprehension as an evidence of the President's headlong impulsiveness. . . . Many instances of hasty and reckless action on the part of the President are cited in current discussions of his availability for renomination. The result of it all is, that the country appears to be withdrawing its confidence from him. Where it used to applaud it now fears and distrusts. Enthusiasm has given place to disquietude and apprehension. The country is beginning to feel that it would be better content with a less restless and self-assertive President."

NO CHANCE FOR COMMON THIEVES!

Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

When a fire occurs in a city the property on fire is under the absolute control of the firemen, not even the owner being allowed to interfere. The police are required to enforce these regulations. In case of the Masonic Temple fire in Louisville this rule enabled the firemen to loot the stores without competition with ordinary thieves who were without police protection.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Maysville Weather.

What May Be Expected Here During the Next Thirty-six Hours.

THE LEDGER CODE

White streamer—Fair;
Blue—Rain or snow;
Black above—Will warmer grow.
Black below—Colder will be;
If black's not shown no change we'll see.
See the above forecasts made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 4 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Meet me at Mills's Edisona, Fountain Square.

WESLEY VICROY.

Mr. Wesley Vicroy, of whose serious condition THE LEDGER made mention in Saturday's issue, died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, never having recovered consciousness.

He was a son of George and Louisa Vicroy, and was born August 1st, 1843, on Campbell's Creek, Ky., near New Richmond, O.

He was a member of the Germantown Christian Church, and has been a Mason since 21 years of age.

He leaves four children, Charles V., William M., Lula M., and Ethel, also four brothers, William J., Dayton, O., John T., Salem, O., Frank M., Scotts, Ky., and Edward J., Miamisburg, O.

The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence in East Second street, under the auspices of the Masons, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating.

CAN'T BE TOO CAREFUL

Warning to Our People About Their Fires This Kind of Weather.

During these freezing days and nights it behooves all to be watchful and guarded about fires.

The most disastrous conflagration this city has ever had has occurred in mid-winter.

During the leisure hours of the police they might put in the time to the interest and advantage of the city if they would inspect and test the fire plugs and free them of any impediment they might contain.

It has occurred on more than one occasion that the plug when about to be used was found to be choked and useless.

A little precaution in this matter might save thousands of dollars.

What do you think of it, Mr. Chief? Don't you think it would be time and labor well spent? Of course you do.

Personal

Mr. Sam T. Hickman has returned from St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude G. Watkins have returned from Cincinnati.

Miss Sallie Ball will be the guest of Mrs. Joe Mock of Millersburg this week.

Mr. Lenin Parnell of Dayton, O., is home to spend Christmas with his family.

Mr. Sam Daugherty is home from College to spend Christmas with his parents.

Mrs. P. A. Williams left Saturday to spend Christmas with relatives in Cynthiana.

Mr. Perry Orme and family of Newport are spending the holidays with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bartlett of Columbus, O., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barkley.

Mrs. C. F. Evans spent a few days in Lexington last week with her daughter, Mrs. Leonard G. Cox.

Parker Bradford arrived last night from St. Louis to spend the holidays with his Aberdeen friends.

Mrs. Alice Boyd left on yesterday's Flyer for New York, to spend the holidays with her daughter, Miss Mollie K. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunter and little daughter of Canton, O., will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives at Sardis and Bluebell Springs.

Mr. D. C. Hutchins arrived Saturday night to spend Christmas with his father, Judge M. C. Hutchins. Mr. Hutchins is attending Ann Harbor University Law School.

Oysters and celery at O'Keefe's.

There's an advertised letter in the Louisville office for John Smith & Co.

The children of the M. E. Sunday-school are expected this afternoon at 2:30 for practice, and the final rehearsal will take place tomorrow evening. All are expected.

Don't forget the benefit for the coal fund at Neptune Hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 22nd and 23rd. Buy your tickets in advance of the girls when they call on you.

LAST WEEK FOR Holiday Goods

This is the place to buy your presents and at the same time get a fine selection at bargain prices. Handkerchiefs from 5c up. Each and every one a little better than you can buy elsewhere at the same price. Fancy Socks, drummer's samples, 19c for 25c kind. Best Line of Fancy Hose in the city from 19c to $1. See the beautiful new line of Waist Goods; up-to-date. Nothing makes a nicer present. Large Moquette Rugs, $2.19, worth everywhere $2.50. Yours for the Best Goods at the Lowest Price.

Robert L. Hoeflich,
211, 213 Market Street.

You Are Invited

To visit my store and inspect my immense stock. It is now full and complete. It is clean and up-to-date. In variety it can't be beat. In quality no better can be produced.

Specialties For the Holidays

An unusually large stock of FIREWORKS and CANDIES of all kinds. Nuts, mixed and un-mixed; also, Oranges, Lemons, Apples, Figs, Raisins, Dates, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel. Dried Fruits, Prunes, Maple Sugar, Buckwheat Flour, Catsups, Oyster Cocktail Sauce, and every article in the Fancy Grocery Line; Oysters, Celery and Cranberries, Poultry and Game. My stock of Fine Teas is unusually large, and my stock of Canned Goods can't be surpassed, either in quantity or quality. Before the late heavy advances in Green Groceries I laid in a large supply. My goods in that line are attractive. My arrangements with a Southern planter who produces the goods enable me at all times to offer the Purest and Best Open Kettle New Crop MOLASSES. My stock is now unusually large. Have just received from the packers in Boston a very large invoice of FINE MACKEREL in kits and barrels; quality extra. My Roasted Coffees are always fresh and quality unsurpassed. My Special Blend at 25c has no equal for the money. Perfection Flour is always the best. You make no mistake when you buy it.

Remember, I buy my goods in large quantities from first hands and can meet anybody's prices; and don't forget that I both Wholesale and Retail. Because of my largely increased business I was compelled to buy another house for storage room, and it is now full.

Fruits and nuts at O'Keefe's.

Lou Dillon, Mr. R. A. Carr's valuable trotter, died suddenly this morning.

Miss Elizabeth Graham of this city guessed all of The Louisville Times puzzles.

Editor J. G. Craddock of The Paris Kentuckian seems to be playing in hard luck. He fell in Lexington recently and broke a rib, and a day or so ago at Paris got another fall, cutting his cheek and blackening an eye.
